1. In a document issued by the Political Commission of the Paraguayan Communist Party (PCP) on 30 April 1951, detailed instructions were given regarding the new plan of education of Party members in Communism, the Party line, and the faults of the present Paraguayan Government and other war-mongering governments of the world.
2. Specifically, the Commission asserted that the Central Committee would be responsible for all material to be passed out and read by Party members, whether in the form of a reserved or secret document to be delivered personally, or a widely-known publication. According to the Commission, the appointed Party member of each zone and of the various groups, principally those of factories, will be held responsible to see that Party members carry out the following educational duties:
 - a. Each member must read twenty minutes daily. It is recommended that laborers should arise earlier in the morning to accomplish this duty, but the reading is not to be carried out immediately after working hours or after eating.
 - b. Each militant member must devote one hour a week with another member of his group, using indicated material. The Commission declared that the responsible member of the group is charged with seeing that the time is arranged so that the members may be grouped together in twos.
 - c. There must be a collective discussion group meeting every 20 days. This meeting will be under the leadership of a member especially appointed by the director of the pertinent zone or group, and he will be accompanied by a recording secretary so that the details of the discussion may be passed to the zone chief and from there to the Central Committee.

- d. Party members who work irregular hours were given specific instructions whereby they could read their required time each day and each week.
3. Finally, the Commission gave specific instructions for the educational plan to be followed by the Central Committee. Each member of the Central Committee must devote one hour daily to reading the general political line and to studying national and international problems. In addition, each member must dedicate two hours a week to the study of the classic works of Marx and Stalin.
